

Thomas Paine Cottage Celebrates Juneteenth – Passion & Perseverance

3:00 pm to 6:00 pm

Opening remarks by Councilmember Sara Kaye

All activities
3 to 5:45pm
Unless otherwise noted

Free public self-guided tours of the Thomas Paine Cottage Museum

- 1st floor Video Room featuring children's videos on Juneteenth
- Colonial Kitchen & Paine's original bedroom/sitting area
- 2nd floor special Juneteenth exhibit
- Huguenot artifact room & New Rochelle history exhibit room

Children's Arts & Crafts Table

- Learn the significance of the Juneteenth flag and create your own
- Special Juneteenth activity pages
- Finger painting & place your hand on our Juneteenth Freedom Poster

Juneteenth Dessert and Refreshment Table

- Why is Red Food served for Juneteenth? Find out at our Red Food dessert table. Red velvet Cookies, Red brownies, punch & candy!

Juneteenth Children's Scavenger Hunt

- Discover the meaning and history of Juneteenth as you explore the Paine Grounds & Cottage Museum
- Hunt is available at the Information & Membership Table
- Last prize awarded at 5:45pm in Schoolhouse

Children's Video Room

- Located on the 1st floor of Paine Cottage, special children's videos celebrating Juneteenth and it's history

Special Juneteenth Museum Exhibit

- Located on 2nd floor, learn the history of Juneteenth through photos, printed material, videos & special recordings from the Library of Congress "Voices Remembering Slavery: Freed People Tell Their Stories"

Picnic Area / Food vendors

- Mikey Dubbs Frozen Custard (will be onsite early)
- Additional vendors to be announced
- BYO Picnic Area

4pm

Exhibition by The Capoeira Center of New Rochelle with special instructions for spectators

7 to 9pm

**Free showing of the movie – Soul Food****

Bring a blanket or chair & enjoy this classic film outside at the Paine Memorial Building Grounds.
Inclement weather showing inside the Paine Memorial Bldg.

**This movie has an R rating****